

Consumer.
Credit.
Solutions.

Areas of professional practice:

- Consumer finance
- Mortgage arrangements
- Consumer protection
- Distance and off-premises contracts
- General terms and conditions
- Bank accounts
- Banking secrecy
- Business information
- Personal data protection
- Payment services
- Financial services
- Financial intermediary services
- Claims securities
- Advertising law
- Copyright

Services

Dr Dominika Rogoń offers legal services which focus on:

- day-to-day services to banks, financial institutions, lending institutions
- consultations, drafting of memoranda
- preparation and analysis of product documentation, general terms and conditions, credit forms, representations, marketing contents
- drafting and analysis of contracts for business transactions
- representing clients in disputes (including proceedings before the President of the Polish Office for Competition and Consumer Protection (UOKiK) and the Court of Competition and Consumer Protection)
- delivering training in the areas of specialisation

dr Dominika Rogoń

Legal Counsel (2005), has specialised for many years in the provision of legal advice to banks and financial institutions (lending institutions in particular); has experience in both day-to-day services and in the drafting of numerous memoranda for businesses in relation to the financial services industry.

Doctor of Law, PhD (Jagiellonian University 2009, doctoral dissertation on consumer credit).

Works with the Polish-German Centre for Banking Law at the Jagiellonian University; has co-authored a commentary on the Consumer Credit Act (2004) and on the Banking Act (2005).

Works regularly with the professional banking bulleting for banks Profesjonalny Serwis Bankowy LEX dla Banków ed. Wolters Kluwer S.A. (until 2016, has provided more than 120 replies to practical inquiries from bulletin users).

Has authored a number of publications on banking law and civil law.

In 2011-2015, member of the working team at the Civil Law Codification Commission associated with the Minister of Justice, chaired by Professor Fryderyk Zoll, to regulate contracts for the provision of services under the new Polish Civil Code.

Speaker at the 2nd (2013), 3rd (2014) and 5th (2016) Congress of Banking Law and Information, and at the 2nd (2011) and 3rd (2016) Consumer Credit Congress, organised by the Union of Polish Banks.

Has many years of experience in delivering training and workshops in relation to the financial services industry.

Foreign languages: English, German

Contact:

Kancelaria Radcy Prawnego dr Dominika Rogoń

ul. Długa 48 lok. nr 8

31-146 Kraków

mob. phone: + 48 600 23 29 14

e-mail:

kancelaria@rogon.com.pl

legal@rogon.com.pl

www.rogon.com.pl